

Celebrations!

Pam's Promise is super thankful for this great group of guys from Trinity Life Mission for volunteering their time to pick up household donations that help Pam's Promise graduates.

Crawfordsville Strawberry Festival

Pam's Promise staff and board members participated in the Crawfordsville Strawberry Festival with a craft booth in June. It was a fun time of meeting new friends and connecting with the community!

Celebrating our Volunteers

Volunteers from Sovereign Grace Church in Bainbridge rented a skid steer and worked hard one hot Saturday in early July taking down an old garage at the Vance Street house to make room for more parking. They also worked as a team weed whacking and cleaning up the yard there. What a blessing they have been!

From its amazing volunteers to new staff, to a faithful board, and generous donors, Pam's Promise has much to celebrate!

Celebrating the Addition of a New Case Manager at Pam's Promise

Pam's Promise welcomes Case Manager, Sarah Siefertman who lives in Crawfordsville with her husband and three children. Sarah loves to read and is currently enrolled in the library science program at Ivy Tech. She is resourceful, enjoys meeting practical needs, and comes to Pam's Promise with a desire to help women grow and flourish in life. One of her favorite Bible verses is Psalms 34:8 "Oh, Taste and see that the LORD is good! Blessed is the one who takes refuge in Him!" Sarah's hope is that she will be able to encourage the women she serves to taste and see the goodness of God.

We celebrate a board committed to Pam's Promise mission of helping homeless women transition into stable sustainable housing. The board meets the 2nd Thursday evening of each month with the annual meeting in June. During the 2021 annual meeting, the bylaws were reviewed and met with a unanimous approval by the board. Offices were also voted on with Megan Dillon continuing as President, Brian Shively stepping down from the Vice Presidency to member at large and Leslie Hatch accepting the position of Vice President. Mary Sue Measel remained in the Treasury roll and Joel Weir, who has served as Secretary of the Board for several years, stepped down to become a member at large with Amy Cochran stepping up to fulfill the roll of Board Secretary. ### A Note from a Client - Celebrating a Place to Heal

From the gate I was grateful to have a place at Pam's Promise, but as time has moved on, I have become exceedingly grateful! September 2020, I found myself sitting in jail for approximately five months and started applying to Drug Court and Pam's Promise. I was accepted to drug court; but to move forward I had to have a stable residency in Montgomery County. Elizabeth came to the jail to meet me and go over the rules, expectations, and commitments expected of women who live at Pam's Promise. She asked me if I was able and willing to commit to what she went over. Absolutely! I was grateful to know I would be in the Drug Court program and have a place to lay my head at Pam's Promise. I was finally going to be able to move on with my life with my number one goal in mind: HEALING. Healing from all the pain and trauma of the past. I have lived at Pam's Promise since March and have made progress in drug court, graduated intensive outpatient treatment, am working the 12-step program, have built a relationship with my sponsor, am attending Bible studies, and have moved forward in restoring a relationship with my son and my mom. My son feels safe at Pam's Promise and recently melted my heart by asking if he could occasionally stay the night with me! Without the opportunity to live at Pam's Promise, I would not have been able to work on these goals or provide a safe spot for my son. I Thank Pam's Promise for giving me a safe, healthy, sober living environment to begin again. I appreciate Pam's Promise more than words can express.
